- Unlike the other items in this exhibition, this is an album cover for the Jon Spencer Blues Explosion's Plastic Fang Nouvel Album. While it is neither a comic or a book, the style is reminiscent both of the psychedelic and comic book styles. This comes from the typography, vivid colors, and aesthetic of the artwork.

- The Plays Well With Others cover is the last item in the exhibition. While the typography is vastly different than traditional comic book style, the artwork and visuals are reminiscent of the style. Vivid colors, sharp contours, and a sense of hyperrealism are prevalent.
